"SCOTTISH CLANS." Series I.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 9401.

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

The Campbell. This clan was the most powerful in Scotland, and is closely bound up with the history of the nation. The head is the Duke of Argyll (called MacCallum More), and for centuries the policy of the Argyll family was predominant. In the Stuart troubles they threw their whole influence on the side of the House of Hanover. The present head is brother-in-law of King Edward VII. The family seat is Inveraray Castle. Their war cry was "Cruachan," the name of a mountain near Loch Awe, and their badge "Wild Myrtle." Their fighting force was about 5,000. "The Campbells are Coming" is a well-known march.
